Getting to Lund

Most international connections are through Copenhagen airport (CPH) or Copenhagen main station. At either location, find red/grey vending machines to obtain single or group train tickets to Lund Central (via the Öresund Bridge) with your credit card, else buy from the booth nearby. Trains are frequent, and reach Lund within 40 minutes. Find the schedule at <http://www.skanetrafiken.se>. If you land at Malmö airport (MMX), you reach Lund by bus (40 minutes). See <http://www.flygbussarna.se/>.

Hotel

Rooms include breakfast at Hotel Lundia (Knut den Stores torg 2, <http://www.lundia.se/>) in the center of town, 2 minutes east of Lund's train station.

Unless noted otherwise, you are assumed to be carnivores ("meat eaters") enjoying wine/beer, and to join two lunches and two dinners (see below). To change this to vegetarian, to add/delete meals (because you bring someone, or cannot join), please send an e-mail to frank.zenker@fil.lu.se now.

Those arriving on Wednesday may want to join us for dinner at New Delhi (Stora Fiskaregatan 15, see map below) at 7.30 pm. This will be at your own cost, please.

Wifi, Gym, Shopping, etc.

You have wifi at the hotel and the workshop site, and can use the service Eduroam (if your university is a member; see <http://www.eduroam.org/>). Several coffeeshops also offer wifi. The gym, Gerdahallen (<http://www.gerdahallen.lu.se/>), is a seven minute walk north of Kungshuset. The pool, Delphinbadet (<http://actic.se/se/Site/Vara-gym-och-priser/Skane/Lund/Delphinenbadet1/>) can be reached by bus. There are several yoga studios around town.
